

Ok
they're off.

NO! THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING!

A yellow-skinned character with orange hair and a pink flower accessory is hanging from a tree branch by a blue cloth. Next to her, a purple-skinned character with a purple conical hat is also hanging from the same branch by a white cloth. Both characters have long, thin, needle-like teeth and look distressed. The background is a blue sky with stylized green and yellow flowers.

CAN SOMEONE
PLEASE HELP US?!

The yellow-skinned character is falling through the air, holding the purple-skinned character. The purple-skinned character is also falling and holding onto a large, thick, yellow-orange tree trunk. Both characters have their mouths wide open in a scream or cry. The background is a solid blue color with some faint yellow and pink circular motion lines around the characters.
